News Release

PNB to issue USD750 million Notes

June 20, 2019 – Philippine National Bank (“PNB”) is set to return to the USD bond market as it priced USD750 million in Fixed Rate Senior Notes (the “Notes”), to be drawn down from its recently increased USD 2 billion Medium Term Note (“MTN” Programme), and following successful meetings with investors by the Lucio Tan-led bank in Hong Kong, Singapore and London from June 18 to 20, 2019. The Notes will be rated Baa2 by Moody’s, or two notches above investment grade.

With the transaction oversubscribed with an orderbook of over USD3.25 billion, the Notes were priced at 99.473% and will carry a yield of 3.391% and a coupon of 3.28%.

In terms of geographic allocation approximately 75% of the Notes was allocated to Asia and the remainder was allocated to investors from Europe – further diversifying and deepening PNB’s investor base. Over 200 accounts participated in the transaction.

The Notes will be issued on June 27, 2019.

The proceeds of the Notes will be used to support PNB’s loan growth, as new management increases focus on opportunities brought by the positive momentum of the Republic of the Philippines’ economic growth.

“We thank investors for this landmark deal, which stands to be the largest USD bond issuance to-date by a Philippine bank. This transaction comes at an opportune time when we are building up the growth momentum at PNB,” PNB President Wick Veloso explained. “The funds we are raising now are going to be used to help fund our growth trajectory. We are totally aligned with the Government’s Build Build Build program and the focus on developing infrastructure around the archipelago. This fundraising also supports the vision of Dr. Lucio Tan of further contributing to the Philippine growth story,” he added.

Citigroup, HSBC and Standard Chartered Bank acted as Joint Lead Managers and Bookrunners on the transaction.
